V Governing Law

This Non-Disclosure Agreement is entered into on April 24, 2026 between On Spot Solutions LLC ("Disclosing Party") and Acme Widgets Inc ("Receiving Party") for the purpose of technical evaluation of On Spot's Apollo platform for potential integration with Acme's document workflows.

SECTION I

Definitions

Confidential Information means any and all non-public, proprietary, or confidential information disclosed by Disclosing Party to Receiving Party, whether oral, written, electronic, or in any other form, including but not limited to technical data, trade secrets, know-how, research, product plans, products, services, customers, customer lists, markets, software, developments, inventions, processes, formulas, technology, designs, drawings, engineering, hardware configuration information, marketing, finances, or other business information.

Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement by Receiving Party; (b) is rightfully received by Receiving Party from a third party without breach of any confidentiality obligation; (c) is independently developed by Receiving Party without use of or reference to Confidential Information; or (d) is required to be disclosed by law or court order, provided that Receiving Party gives Disclosing Party prompt written notice of such requirement.

SECTION II

Obligations of Receiving Party

Receiving Party agrees to:

1. Hold Confidential Information in strict confidence and not disclose it to any third party without prior written consent of Disclosing Party.
2. Use Confidential Information solely for the purpose stated above and for no other purpose.
3. Take reasonable precautions to protect the confidentiality of Confidential Information, using at least the same degree of care that it uses to protect its own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable care.
4. Limit access to Confidential Information to employees, agents, or advisors who have a legitimate need to know and who have been informed of the confidential nature of such information.
5. Not reverse engineer, disassemble, or decompile any prototypes, software, or other tangible objects that embody Confidential Information.

SECTION III

Permitted Disclosures

Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information to the extent required by law or court order, provided that Receiving Party: (a) promptly notifies Disclosing Party in writing of such requirement; (b) cooperates with Disclosing Party in seeking a protective order or other appropriate remedy; and (c) discloses only that portion of Confidential Information that is legally required to be disclosed.

SECTION IV

Term and Termination

This Agreement shall remain in effect for a period of three (3) years from the effective date. The obligations of Receiving Party under this Agreement shall survive termination and continue for a period of three (3) years following termination or expiration of this Agreement. Upon termination or upon written request by Disclosing Party, Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all materials containing Confidential Information and certify such return or destruction in writing.

SECTION V

Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, without regard to its conflict of laws principles. Any disputes arising under this Agreement shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in Massachusetts. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous agreements, whether written or oral, relating to such subject matter. This Agreement may not be amended except by a written instrument signed by both parties.
