V Governing Law

This Non-Disclosure Agreement is entered into on April 24, 2026, between On Spot Solutions LLC ("Disclosing Party") and Acme Widgets Inc ("Receiving Party") for the purpose of technical evaluation of On Spot's Apollo platform for potential integration with Acme's document workflows.

SECTION I

Definitions

Confidential Information means any and all non-public, proprietary, or confidential information disclosed by Disclosing Party to Receiving Party, whether orally, in writing, or in any other form, including but not limited to technical data, trade secrets, know-how, research, product plans, products, services, customers, customer lists, markets, software, developments, inventions, processes, formulas, technology, designs, drawings, engineering, hardware configuration information, marketing, finances, or other business information.

Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly known through no breach of this Agreement by Receiving Party; (b) is rightfully known by Receiving Party prior to disclosure; (c) is rightfully obtained by Receiving Party from a third party without breach of any confidentiality obligation; or (d) is independently developed by Receiving Party without use of or reference to Confidential Information.

SECTION II

Obligations of Receiving Party

1. Receiving Party shall hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence and shall not disclose such information to any third party without the prior written consent of Disclosing Party.
2. Receiving Party shall use Confidential Information solely for the purpose stated above and for no other purpose.
3. Receiving Party shall protect Confidential Information using the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information, but in no event less than reasonable care.
4. Receiving Party shall limit access to Confidential Information to those employees or agents who need to know such information for the stated purpose and who have been informed of the confidential nature of such information.
5. Receiving Party shall not reverse engineer, disassemble, or decompile any prototypes, software, or other tangible objects embodying Confidential Information.

SECTION III

Permitted Disclosures

Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information if required to do so by law or court order, provided that Receiving Party gives Disclosing Party prompt written notice of such requirement prior to disclosure and cooperates with Disclosing Party in seeking a protective order or other appropriate remedy.

SECTION IV

Term and Termination

This Agreement shall remain in effect for three years from the effective date. The obligations of Receiving Party with respect to Confidential Information shall survive termination of this Agreement and continue for a period of three years following such termination. Upon termination or upon written request by Disclosing Party, Receiving Party shall return or destroy all documents, materials, and other tangible manifestations of Confidential Information and all copies thereof.

SECTION V

Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, without regard to its conflict of laws principles. Any disputes arising under this Agreement shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Massachusetts. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous understandings or agreements, whether written or oral, regarding such subject matter. This Agreement may not be amended except by a written instrument signed by both parties.
